"HOC SIGNO FORTUNA."

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, NOV. 5th, 1818.

The drawing of the new Masonic Hall Lottery will be completed this afternoon---accompanying this day's Register are the lists of the 17th & 18th days, comprising thirty-five hundred numbers---Our friends in the country holding small prizes and wishing the cash for the same, can have it remitted without waiting the sixty days called for by the scheme---such therefore will forward their prizes for that purpose, or if they wish them renewed in other lotteries, they will please so direct, and their instructions will be attended to accordingly.

AFFAIR OF COM. PERRY &amp; CAPT. HEATH.

(Concluded from our last.)

In consequence of the foregoing the parties assembled at Philadelphia, and major Hamilton there transferred the above memorandum to commodore Decatur, introducing to him, at the same time, lieut. Desha as the friend of captain Heath, when the following arrangements were made by them:

PHILADELPHIA, 14th Oct. 1818.

Memorandum of the preliminary arrangements between commodore Decatur, on the part of captain Perry, and lieut. Desha, on the part of captain Heath.

1st. That it is understood that capt. Perry and his friend are to proceed to New-York, or its vicinity, where he is to remain until the arrival of capt. Heath, or until the period which is named in this paper for their meeting.

2d. That captain Heath with his friend are to follow and remain at some convenient point on the Jersey shore, near the city of New-York, and to give information after their arrival to capt. Perry's friend where such arrangements will be made as may be deemed necessary.

3d. The parties to be on the point specified, and the notification required by the 2d article given prior to the approaching Monday, the 19th.

The parties accordingly met on Monday, the 19th inst. at 12 o'clock, on the Jersey shore of the Hudson, where capt. Perry received the fire of captain Heath without returning it, when commodore Decatur immediately stepped forward and declared, that commodore Perry had come to the ground with a determination not to return the fire of captain Heath; in proof of which he read a letter from commodore Perry to him, which he had written, (and which is herewith subjoined) soliciting him to become his friend; and, therefore, he presumed the party aggrieved was satisfied. Capt. Heath having expressed his acquiescence in this opinion, and that the injury he had received from captain Perry was atoned for, the parties returned to the city.

We do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct statement.

(Signed)

STEPHEN DECATUR.

B. M. DESHA.

Letter from commodore Perry, referred to in the foregoing, to commodore Decatur.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18, 1818.

My dear Commodore—

You are already acquainted with the unfortunate affair which has taken place between captain Heath and myself. Although I consider, from the course he has thought proper to pursue, that I am absolved from all accountability to him, yet, as I did, in a moment of irritation, produced by strong provocation, raise my hand against a person honoured with a commission, I have determined, upon mature reflection to give him a meeting, should he call on me; declaring, at the same time, that I cannot consent to return his fire, as the meeting, on my part, will be entirely as an atonement for the violated rules of the service.—I request therefore, my dear sir, that you will act as my friend on this occasion.

Very truly your friend,

O. H. PERRY.

Com. Stephen Decatur.

Thus has terminated this unpleasant difference; and, as it has created considerable sensation throughout the Union, the publication of the foregoing documents are deemed necessary.

In the brig America, which arrived at Philadelphia on Thursday last, in 106 days from Valparaiso, came passenger, Judge Bland, one of the commissioners sent by the President of the United States, on a mission to South America.

By the same arrival, information is received, that the U. S. sloop of war Ontario, capt. Biddle, sailed in the middle of June from Valparaiso for Columbia river.
